

SLSO At-Home Learning
Orchestral Music Suggestions

There is so much great orchestral music that can be used for movement activities, dancing, and instrument-playing. Below are some of the SLSO Education Team’s favorites.

Slow music

Table with 3 columns: Composer, Piece, YouTube. Rows include Ludwig van Beethoven (Moonlight Sonata), Frédéric Chopin (Prelude in C minor), Claude Debussy (Clair de Lune), Antonin Dvořák (Symphony No. 9), Edward Elgar (Enigma Variations), Edvard Grieg (Peer Gynt), Camille Saint-Saëns (The Carnival of the Animals), and Pyotr Ilyich Tchaikovsky (The Nutcracker).

Fast music

Table with 3 columns: Composer, Piece, YouTube. Rows include Aaron Copland (Hoe Down from Rodeo), Dmitry Kabalevsky (Comedian’s Galop), Aram Khachaturian (Sabre Dance), Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart (Overture to The Marriage of Figaro), Jacques Offenbach (Galop Infernal), Nikolai Rimsky-Korsakov (Flight of the Bumblebee), Gioachino Rossini (William Tell Overture), Camille Saint-Saëns (The Carnival of the Animals), Johann Strauss (Thunder and Lightning Polka), and Pyotr Ilyich Tchaikovsky (The Nutcracker).

