

STL SYMPHONY

EDUCATION PROGRAMS

DAVID ROBERTSON | MUSIC DIRECTOR

TRANSPORTATION PACKET

STL SYMPHONY

EDUCATION PROGRAMS

DAVID ROBERTSON | MUSIC DIRECTOR

ARRIVAL AT POWELL HALL

Arrival by Bus

- Make sure your bus is clearly labeled with the school's name for easy identification by STL Symphony staff
- All buses must unload on Delmar Boulevard, on the north side of Powell Hall
- Do NOT unload your bus on Grand Boulevard
- Please wait for an STL Symphony staff member to greet you with further instructions before unloading your bus and parking
- If groups with multiple buses become separated, STL Symphony staff have complete information for your group to reconnect inside Powell Hall
- Concerts are 45 minutes long, and buses will not be able to leave the parking lot during the concert – Please stay with your bus.

Accommodations and Accessibility

- All buses must unload on the south side of Delmar Boulevard, adjacent to Powell Hall
- If your group includes wheelchairs, after your bus has been unloaded, your bus will receive special instructions for parking on the north side of Delmar Boulevard

Powell Hall Tours

- All buses must unload on the south side of Delmar Boulevard, adjacent to Powell Hall
- When your bus is greeted by STL Symphony staff, please confirm that you are participating in the tour
- Groups staying for a tour will receive special instructions for parking on the north side of Delmar Boulevard after students have unloaded the bus

STL SYMPHONY

EDUCATION PROGRAMS

DAVID ROBERTSON | MUSIC DIRECTOR

ARRIVAL AT POWELL HALL CONTINUED

Arrival by Vans or Cars

- Attendees arriving in vans or cars should park in the lot behind Third Baptist Church
- Cost is $5.00 per car (cash only)
- The lot can be accessed from Samuel Shepherd or Washington Avenue
- There will be NO parking access to the lot behind Powell Hall

DEPARTURE*

- Please help ensure a smooth departure for all students by being at your vehicle promptly after the concert
- 9:30 a.m. concerts end at 10:15 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. concerts end at 11:45 a.m.
- After the concert, students will exit Powell Hall on the south (right) side of building (except for groups with wheelchairs), which exit directly into the parking lot
- Due to safety concerns, buses are unable to move until ALL students are on board and seated from ALL schools
- Buses will be directed by Grand Center parking lot staff to exit the parking lot as soon as all students are safely loaded
- Buses cannot be left in the parking lot after the concert. For the 9:30 a.m. concert, buses must clear the lot by 10:30 a.m. and by 12:00 p.m. for the 11:00 a.m. concert

*If your group plans to visit other Grand Center institutions, bus parking arrangements must be made with those organizations. Powell Hall does not own the parking lots. They must be emptied following each education concert.

On behalf of the STL Symphony Education Team, we look forward to seeing you and your students at Powell Hall!

STL SYMPHONY

EDUCATION PROGRAMS

DAVID ROBERTSON | MUSIC DIRECTOR

Parking may change due to construction at 634 N Grand Boulevard. Please be patient with parking lot staff as they work to get everyone parked safely and efficiently.

SCHOOL:

BUS _____ OF _____

