

St. Louis Symphony Orchestra
Replacement Section Viola Audition (2 positions)
April 16-17, 2018

General Audition Information

Please read all of this information carefully, and retain for your future reference. All questions regarding the audition and this information must be directed to the Orchestra Personnel Office only. Discussions with or inquiries to anyone other than the Orchestra Personnel Office could disqualify the candidate from the audition; candidates are not permitted to contact members of the audition committee.

The preferred method of contact is by email to auditions@slo.org.

Please await confirmation of your audition before making travel plans; this audition is by invitation only. The audition is scheduled for Monday and Tuesday, April 16th and 17th starting at 9:00am at Powell Hall, 718 N. Grand Blvd, St. Louis, MO 63013. All candidates are asked to arrive at the hall no later than 8:30am. For travel purposes, please plan on staying until 8:00pm on April 16th and 6:00pm on April 17th.

Invitations are sent by email, typically within one week after the resume deadline. Deposits will not be required for this audition, but we kindly ask you to show courtesy to the audition committee by letting us know seven days prior to the audition date if you will not attend. Failure to notify us of your cancellation by this deadline may prevent you from taking future St. Louis Symphony Orchestra auditions.

The St. Louis Symphony Orchestra does not reimburse travel costs for candidates making a single trip for their audition, as is the case for this audition.

Please note:

- The St. Louis Symphony Orchestra tunes to A=442.
- The Audition Committee of the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra reserves the right to dismiss immediately any candidate not meeting the highest professional standards.
- It is understood that any candidate auditioning for a full-time position will accept employment. Please do not audition if you do not plan to accept full-time employment, should it be offered.
- In all auditions, orchestral excerpts will be performed from music supplied by the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra, either the copy on the stand or your personal copy of the excerpts provided to you. Individuals may use their own music if the edition is identical to the excerpts provided by the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra.
- Note that no electronic devices are allowed on stage during your audition, including but not limited to tuners, metronomes, cell phones, and recording devices.
- Due to limited space and to ensure the integrity of the audition process, please do not bring guests with you to the audition. Also, all candidates are asked to leave the Hall immediately after being dismissed. We ask that you arrive no earlier than 1 hour before your scheduled audition group start time.
- The St. Louis Symphony Orchestra and its members do not critique auditions; please do not ask for comments about your audition.
- In order to maintain complete anonymity of candidates and to help ensure that the utmost care is taken to preserve the integrity of an unbiased audition, the Orchestra Personnel Manager reserves the right to change the order in which candidates audition if circumstances arise during the process warranting such consideration.
- Please notify us of address or phone number changes during the audition process.

St. Louis Symphony Orchestra
Replacement Section Viola Audition (2 positions)
April 16-17, 2018

Position Details

The St. Louis Symphony Orchestra's Replacement Section Viola positions begins on September 10, 2018, and the last day of the season and employment is June 30, 2019. Pay is at least minimum orchestra weekly scale of $2,127.94 for at least thirty-nine (39) paid weeks: this includes at least thirty-seven (37) paid playing weeks, and two (2) paid Collective Vacation Weeks. Dates for playing and vacation weeks will be specified in the offer made after the audition. The Symphony will be able to offer some reimbursement for relocation expenses.

Long-term Replacement musicians have the option to participate in the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra's Community Partnerships program and in return receive one additional week of paid vacation, which is scheduled by mutual agreement with the Director of Orchestra Personnel.

In accordance with the Master Agreement, the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra contributes a percentage of a long-term Replacement musician's gross wages to the AFM Pension Fund, which is 5.0% for the 2018/19 season, and also provides additional taxable compensation of 3.5% of total non-media wages, which is in lieu of Defined Contribution Pension Plan contributions that are made for Members of the Orchestra.

The Symphony reimburses long-term Replacement musicians for health insurance premiums up to $200.00 per month for individual coverage during the period of employment. Any partial month of coverage will be reimbursed on a pro-rata basis. Gaps in employment of one week or less will be treated as continuous employment (i.e. unpaid vacation weeks or other weeks during the season). One Year musicians will be excused with pay for up to eight (8) services for their own illness or injury.

Long-term Replacement musicians will be paid in accordance with the appropriate local or national AFM agreement for any electronic media activities such as, but not limited to, live recordings, recording sessions, radio broadcasts.

Anyone accepting this long-term Replacement position will need to re-audition for permanent/tenure-track employment, and it is understood that they will follow the regular St. Louis Symphony audition procedures.

If offered employment for this position, you must be prepared to show your eligibility to work in the United States on your first day of employment. If you are not authorized to work in the U.S., the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra does not assist with obtaining the necessary visa, authorization, or the cost of doing so.

Thank you for your interest in the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra.
