

St. Louis Symphony Orchestra

stéphane denève : music director

Powell Hall Renovation and Expansion Design Team

The prime project team includes a number of industry-leading companies:

- Snøhetta, the internationally acclaimed architecture firm, is the project lead and design architect. The firm's portfolio includes the National September 11 Memorial & Museum, the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art, the Shanghai Grand Opera House, and the Norwegian National Opera and Ballet.
- St. Louis-based Christner Architects, a woman-owned architectural design firm will serve as the architect of record.
- Chicago-based Schuler Shook serves as the theatre planning consultant.
- St. Louis-based BSI Constructors is the project's construction manager.
- Kirkegaard, based in Chicago, is the project's acoustics design firm.

Additional project team companies include:

- McClure Engineering is the local MEP/FP engineer.
- KPFF Consulting Engineers is the local structural engineer .
- FRONT is the façade design consultant.
- David Mason + Associates, a local, minority-owned firm, is the civil engineer.
- WSDG is the audio-visual systems design firm.
- Faith Group LLC is the local, woman-owned security consulting firm.
- Lochmueller Group is the local traffic and parking consultant.
- Cohen Hilberry Architects is the local accessibility consultant.
- Randy Burkett Lighting Design Inc is the local lighting design consultant.
- Theatre DNA is the theatrical lighting design consultant.
- Holmes Keogh Associates is the code consultant.

St. Louis Symphony Orchestra

stéphane denève : music director

- Karen Bode Baxter is a local historic preservation consultant.
- Geotechnology Inc. is the local environmental engineering consultant.
- ATIS Elevator is the local elevator consultant.