Music Without Boundaries

Gemma New, conductor

PRESENTED IN PARTNERSHIP WITH THE MAGIC HOUSE

Music is a language spoken around the world, with unique regional dialects created through differences in rhythm, style, instrumentation and tradition. In partnership with the World Traveler Gallery at The Magic House, we will travel around the world exploring a variety of music from different cultures.

February 23 at 3:00pm

Peter and the Wolf

Gemma New, conductor

Join Peter and his animal friends on a symphonic adventure in Prokofiev's beloved work Peter and the Wolf. Introducing generations to classical music, each character in this musical fairy tale is represented by a different instrument of the orchestra. Together we experience the beautiful tapestry of orchestral color representative of our own unique voices and personalities.

April 19 at 3:00pm

World of Water

Gemma New, conductor

PRESENTED IN PARTNERSHIP WITH THE
ST. LOUIS AQUARIUM AT UNION STATION

From vast ocean landscapes to small babbling brooks, the enchanting world of water has been inspiring composers for centuries. Join your SLSO as we dive into musical works for the entire family, inspired by water.
